ISSUE RESOLUTION PROCESS

Section 1 INVESTIGATION

When a potential violation of the Ed Dorado Homeowners Association's Protective Covenants or By-Laws is noticed or reported, the Board will investigate the situation to determine if it is a violation of the Covenants or By-Laws. An investigation conducted by an authorized representative of the Board should include:

- a. Open and frequent communications between the Board and homeowners on issues being investigated. If the homeowners are consulted during the investigative process, a written memo documenting this consultation should be included in the investigative file.
- b. Photographs documenting the potential violation, if possible.
- c. Written documentation of the investigative findings, including:
 - i. the date the potential violation was investigated,
 - ii. who conducted the investigation, and
 - iii. written finding of the investigator.

Section 2 NOTIFICATION

If it is determined by the Board to be a violation of the Covenants or By-Laws: A letter will be compiled under the direction of the President through the Secretary (hereinafter "Letter") to include but not limited to the following:

- a. Addressed to the homeowner from the "Board of Directors",
- b. Description of the violation and referencing the section of the Covenants or By Laws,
- c. What actions need to take place to bring the issue into compliance,
- d. Include a date the violation is to be brought back into compliance,

- e. Copies sent to all Board members and Secretary.
- f. If verbal notice is given to the homeowner, this is to be followed with a letter to the homeowner documenting the verbal notice.
- g. Timely notice of the violation is essential.

Section 3 FAILURE TO RESPOND

If the homeowner does not bring the violation into compliance of the Covenants or By-Laws in the time frame stated in the Letter, the issue will be elevated to the El Dorado Homeowners Association's Lawyer for further action. At the discretion of the Board, the Board may choose to pursue litigation, mediation or arbitration to resolve the violation.

- a. Approval or denial of the proposal will be documented by a letter to the homeowner.
- b. Any agreements shall not be binding on the Board unless evidenced by a writing signed by both parties.

Section 5. MODIFICATIONS. The Board may conduct reasonable modifications to this process on a case-by-case basis.

ARTICLE XV

CLARIFICATIONS

This Section of the By-Laws provides guidance to further clarify and define issues within the El Dorado Homeowners Association's Protective Covenants.

Section 1 RECREATIONAL VEHICLES.

Definition of "temporary basis" in reference to recreational vehicles:

- The RV is on the lot for a period of time no longer than a single 6-month season or duration no longer than 6-months. When this 6-month period expires, the RV must be removed from the tract for a minimum of 3 weeks before it can be placed on the tract for another 6-month period.
- An RV may be permanently located on a tract if it is placed in a fully enclosed, architecturally approved building or is stored on a tract having a permanent residence. It is apparent from the entirety of Section 2 that the Covenants only intend that permanent structures serve as residences in El Dorado.

Recreational vehicles are prohibited from becoming a permanent structure. "Permanent Structure" in reference to RVs is defined as:

- Being lived in permanently, or
- Having permanent frames, structures or decks being built around the vehicle, or
- The hitch is removed or unable to be used, or tires are flat or unusable.

RV storage on lots:

- It is prohibited to have campers, recreational vehicles or other vehicles stored on lots if there is not a permanent residence on the lot.

In summary, an RV may be used only for a short or limited time and not to exceed a 6- month period. If the RV is being used as a permanent or long-term residence exceeding 6 months however, rather than for a short or limited time only, the owner is in violation of the Covenants and the Board may take the appropriate enforcement action.

If the RV cannot be removed in the required time frame, the landowners must submit in writing a proposal to the Board. Reference issue resolution process.

Section 2 MOBILE OR OTHER PORTABLE HOMES

The Definition of "mobile or other portable homes" shall include any method of off-site construction, including:

- a. "Mobile Homes": Any dwelling structure built on a steel chassis and fitted with wheels that is intended to be hauled to a usually permanent site.
- b. "Manufactured Homes": A dwelling structure that is constructed almost entirely in a factory. The house is placed on a steel chassis (a supporting frame) and transported to the building site. The wheels can be removed but the chassis stays in place.
- c. "Modular Homes": Sectional prefabricated dwelling structures which have axles or a frame, so are typically transported to their site by means of flat-bed trucks.

Manufactured Homes and Modular Homes that were erected or previously approved to be installed prior to October 3rd, 2015 shall be exempt from this definition.

Section 3 BUSINESS ENDEAVORS – CLARIFICATION

Article VIII, Section 1 of the current Covenants states that “No business, trade, manufacture, or other commercial endeavor shall be conducted thereon unless approved in writing” by the Association. As a point of clarification, “business endeavors” are those that impose increased burdens on the Association and its members. This includes increased road activity and increased activity at either the Mine or Lake Recreation Areas or other common areas in the Association. In addition, all business endeavors must be in compliance with the Association Covenants.

Section 4 RESIDENCE – CLARIFICATION

Article VIII, Section 2 of the Association Covenants prevents multiple family dwellings and prevents the use of any outbuilding or other structure on the property as a residence. As related to Article VIII, Section 2 of the Association Covenants, “residence” does not include the temporary occupation of outbuilding for housing temporary “guests”. Guests include non-paying family and friends who are visiting for a period not to exceed 6 months. Longer staying guests (more than 6 months) will require the property owner to pay an extra assessment equal to the current lot fee annually to support road maintenance.
